RETURNS

We do our absolute best to make returns hassle-free for you. In order to return a product, please contact us. Please make sure to have your order number ready when contacting our team.

If a product is received damaged or if you receive an incorrect product (wrong finish, specifications, etc.), we ask that you take pictures of the affected product and contact us at your earliest convenience. Do not under any circumstance install a product that is damaged or incorrect.

If a manufacturer defect is discovered during installation, we ask that you take pictures of the affected product and contact us before proceeding any further with the installation.

In the rare case of a fitment issue, WheelWiz requires clients to take pictures prior to requesting a return and will not cover any labour costs incurred.

In rare cases of returns in which there is an exchange/swap of products taking place, the following two options are available:

1. Quick Method: A second order will be processed, charged in full and shipped out to you. Simultaneously, a
